Fees:

The booth fee is $225. There is also a non-refundable jury fee of $15 for each medium entered. Make checks payable to Hope House Foundation. Do not pay with cash or money order. Your booth fee check will be returned if you are not selected. Please make out separate checks for each fee.

Artists may show only in the mediums in which they are accepted. No artist may display work in a medium that has not been juried. If you would like to have more than one medium considered for the show you must submit slides/digital images and jury fees for all mediums for jurying. For example, a glass artist who wants to display glass jewelry must apply and be juried in both glass and jewelry. Stockley Gardens Arts Festival turns other artists away based on your commitment to participate; therefore, no refunds will be made for cancellations.

The Selection Process:

Selection is based on creativity, technical ability and use of medium. The selection process is based solely on the slides submitted and does not take into account factors such as prior history with the festival or awards won in other shows. The jury selection is final.

Slides/Digital Images:

4 slides or digital images ON CD ONLY representing each category of work intended for display at the festival must be submitted for each category entered and 1 additional slide/image of artists booth. Slides must be 2"x 2" and clearly marked "top" and "front." Slides/CD must be labeled with the artist's name. Photos are not accepted. We are not responsible for lost or damaged slides/CD's. Slides/CD's will be returned when notifications are mailed. We have printed the images on the Slides/CD's belonging to accepted and alternate artists, which will be used for recheck during the show.

Previous Award Winners:

Artist who've won awards (not Purchase Prizes) in the last four shows are exempt from jury selection and don't need to send slides or jury fee. They must still apply by July 25, 2008 with the $225 booth fee.

Notification:

A self-addressed stamped envelope must accompany the application. This envelope will be used for notification of selection and to return slides/CD's. Be sure to affix enough postage on the return envelope to include mailing costs of your slides/CD's and to make sure all materials will fit in the envelope. Notice of selection will be mailed the week of August 25th.
